WEYMOUTH'S VOTE FOR 1901.

The People Express Their Preference for Town Officers.

Women of the Town Take an Interest in the Election and Go to the Polls.

As March days average, Monday was not a bad day for a town election, and the record shows that the people of Weymouth took fully as much interest in the choice of officers for the coming year. The machinery of the last year's election was set in motion at six o'clock in the morning, but the first returns did not get to the Town Clerk until nearly eleven at night. Nineteen hundred and ninety-eight people voted with the following result:

The Coming of the Amazon.

In the year 1845 our village was thronged by many itinerant fire-eaters, and the burning of barns about the neighborhood.

As I recollect, these fire-eaters occurred at intervals in the evening, so we were always on the watch at that time, and the people became much alarmed.

There being no fire engine in the village, we borrowed one from Quincy (the Abenaki). This was one of the first engines built.

This engine came in use when the barn on the old Asa Hunt place, on Essex street, was burned. At this time a committee was chosen to buy a

The third annual dinner of the Commonwealth Club was held at the room in Washington square on Friday evening last, and the hospitality of the members was enjoyed by a company of about 100, including many ex-members and a number of invited guests. The committee in charge of the dinner was composed of President John P. Hunt, H. P. H. Hunt, F. P. Hayward, A. L. Whitcomb and W. H. H. Hunt, and they acquitted themselves in a highly commendable manner.

PORTER

—Next Friday evening, March 15, at the Porter Englin House, Miss Anne Louise Tirrell will repeat the entertainment which was given at the recent fair held at the Opera House, East Weymouth.

—The timely appearance of the janitor at the Porter M. E. Church last Saturday afternoon, saved it from a serious loss. The janitor and neighbors succeeded in extinguishing the fire without the aid of the Hose Co. Considerable damage was done however, and services could not be held on Sunday last.

—Mrs. Claude Flaher has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Nathan Tirrell.

—Miss Ethel Hunt is ill at her home on Pleasant street.

—The season at the mill closed on Saturday last. Parker Lane (who had his hand severely injured at the mill a short time since) was presented with a purse, from the firm, Mr. Ripley and employees, which came as a great surprise and for which he was very grateful.

—Herbert Thomson and Wallace Winsor of Providence, R. I., have been guests of Forti Fratt.

CARD OF THANKS.

I take this opportunity to thank my many friends who assisted and gave me their support in my re-election at the recent election.
